Reference :- Special India Army Order No. 29-S., dated 12th October 1918.

Pardon for deserters other than those convicted and undergoing sentence.

As soon as possible after the 1st January 1919, Officers Commanding all Indian units and depots will render a return to Divisional and Independent Brigade Headquarters showing, by classes and units, the numbers of deserters and illegal absentees who have surrendered under the terms of the pardon.

These statistics will be tabulated by General Officers Commanding, Divisions and Independent Brigades, and a combined statement for the Division or Brigade submitted to Army Headquarters.

2. Meanwhile, Officers Commanding units and depots will use every endeavour to make the terms of the pardon as widely known as possible. In this connection men should be encouraged to mention the matter in letters to their relatives and friends. Recruiting parties and leave men should also be instructed to make known the terms of the pardon in all the villages and towns which they visit.

3. Men who surrender themselves under the terms of the pardon will not be required to re-enrol but should be held to serve on their origi enrolment.

4. Paragraphs 1029-B. and 1031 (ii), Army Regulations, India, Volume I, regarding the forfeiture and restoration of service rendered prior to desertion will apply to the cases of all persons availing themselves of the pardon.

5. Although the terms of the pardon are applicable to Trans-Frontier Pathans, it is not desired that these classes should be required to serve after surrender. They should, therefore, be discharged
